

Something is not quite right

9 - 31 July 2022

Curated by Ana Sous

We are happy to announce the final exhibition of 'Art through the Window', project initiated by The Artist and the Others.

> 'Something is not quite right', curated by guest curator Ana Sous will be running from the 9th to the 31st of July 2022. Drawing connections between global situations, politics, and personal experiences, how can we question our reality, and be open to different ways of perceiving the world?

> Bringing together different artistic positions, the exhibition features the work of Amber Lalieu, Flora Lemmens, Marie Claire Krell & Joep Caenen – who will especially create a 'hut', a setting built in-situ with which visitors will be able to interact directly.

> The pre-opening of the exhibition will take place at De Meldkamer (Capucijnenstraat 21, Maastricht), on the 8th of July at 6 pm (open to Press from 5 pm).

The exhibition circles around the sensation that what we perceive as true 'is never quite right'. There are infinite ways of understanding reality. According to curator Ana Sous, we may or may not be aware of this, but each truth is as valid as our own experience.

In their work, the artists explore different ways in which we can perceive of the world, reflecting this perspective in their work. The aim is to invite visitors to wonder, question and consider different understandings, recognizing the limits of perception.

"(...) sudden acts of terror have burst into our consciousness with the global pandemic, the emerging far-right movement, and the war in Ukraine. The lingering terror laying in front of us hit us hard. The illusionary sense of peace collapsed, and the sense of unease felt by many over the past years manifested itself through concrete and inescapable events. Greta Thunberg said "I want you to panic" three years ago. Maybe let's try to look and question first." – Curator Ana Sous.
